Real Leadership for Women

MASTERCLASS PROGRAM

Held over 10 weeks, this acclaimed Masterclass Program includes a 2-day intensive on 15-16 March, 2021 in Perth.

Optimising leadership for positive influence

This ten-week 'Real Leadership for Women Masterclass' is a game changer for aspiring female leaders, and those seeking to take their leadership to the next level.

Designed to develop leaders who are empowered, resilient and engaging, it covers a range of insightful and interactive content that participants can start putting into practice straight away.

Expert facilitators, Kylah Morrison and Violet Dhu, will give you the tools to fulfill your leadership potential and lead with confidence. With strictly limited numbers, this masterclass program offers real and lasting value.

A strengths-based approach to increasing self-awareness & unlocking potential.

A range of relevant tools & strategies, with a focus on real-world application.

A valuable Alumni network, boosting confidence in your natural leadership abilities.

Learning Modules

Leadership identity & strengths

Understand and build on your natural strengths as a leader. Learn how to identify and leverage strengths of your team members. Develop your leadership philosophy, trust your instincts and stand up for your principles.

Practical tools & strategies for success

Develop and use emotional intelligence in your leadership approach. Learn mindfulness techniques to help manage workplace stress and anxiety. Grow in confidence and resilience and rise to the top of your field.

Communicate with excellence

Master the art of confident, credible and authentic communication. Discover the importance of empathic listening, diversity of thought and situational communication. Learn how to tackle difficult conversations effectively.

Unlock the potential of your team

Inspire and motivate your team to strive for high performance. Discover the power of a united purpose and vision. Master your own work-life integration and lead by example.

Participant profile

The Real Leadership for Women Masterclass Program is ideally suited to women currently working in leadership roles, including mid to senior level managers, aspiring managers who have been identified as having high potential and business owners.

"Any women who want to develop themselves, meet other like-minded women & be supported by strong women who can give them tools for their leadership journey should consider being part of this Masterclass Program"

Kylie | Fortescue Metals Group

10 Week Program

Intro & Preparation

Participants emailed pre-work content

Capability assessments

45-minute 1:1 coaching call

Group Face-to-Face Learning

2-day intensive workshop

In-person networking

Interactive leadership simulations

Follow-up Support & Accountability

45-minute 1:1 coaching call

Live group webinars

Alumni network

Evolving resource vault

Reflection & self-assessment

Expert personal coaching

Best-practice leadership modules

Hands-on learning

Group review & consolidation

Clients

Kylah and Violet have worked with clients from BHP, FMG, South32, Woodside, Rio Tinto, City of Karratha, Pilbara Development Commission, Pilbara Health Network, WA Police, Department of Housing, Brida, Connect Paediatric Therapy Services, Earth2Ocean Electronics, North West Accountancy, Tidal Solutions, Yo-Get-It and other SMEs.

"Kylah and Violet are dynamic and I love the energy they put into their presentations. Although sceptical, I loved the hands-on activities. After attending the Masterclass Program, I'm not going to take people's reactions so personally and I will use the skills I learned to be more confident in having difficult conversations."

Kari | North West Accountancy

Real
LEADERSHIP
FOR WOMEN

Kylah Morrison
maverickeffect.com

Multi-award winning leader, trainer and consultant, Kylah Morrison is the former CEO of the Karratha & Districts Chamber of Commerce & Industry, and founding Chair of the Pilbara Universities Centre. She is an inspiring business leader with valuable boardroom experience.

Kylah helps leaders get clarity and direction, and unlock potential by leveraging strengths. With experience in operations and business development, Kylah breaks down big picture goals into manageable tasks, motivating her clients and teams to take action.

2020 United Nations Association of Australia WA Gender Equality Promotion Award

2020 Women in Tech WA Tech[+] 20 Award

2019 Telstra Business Women's WA For Purpose & Social Enterprise Award

Professional Member of Professional Speakers Association

Violet Dhu
violetdhu.com.au

Violet Dhu is an experienced speaker, trainer and coach specialising in corporate communication skills.

Violet is passionate about developing great interpersonal and communication skills among women in leadership.

With more than twenty years' experience, Violet has helped many people in the areas of assertive communication, difficult conversations, giving and receiving feedback, leadership and nonverbal communication.

Violet is a graduate of the Harvard Law School Negotiation and Difficult Conversations Project

Certified Professional Speaker through Professional Speakers Association

"Prior to participating in the 2017 Masterclass Program I felt stagnant...

The passion both Kylah and Violet have for empowering women in leadership is so evident in the way they facilitate, complement each other and encourage women to discover their true potential.

They gave me lots to think about, develop and enhance!"

Jodie | WA Police

Real Leadership for Women

MASTERCLASS PROGRAM

15 – 16 March 2021, Perth

Kailis Bros Leederville

Full rate | $2097 +GST

Early bird | $1797 +GST

NFP/ Micro Biz | $1497 +GST

Be quick, limited places available. For more information and to secure your position contact:

Kylah
0456 110 240
kylah@maverickeffect.com

Violet
0408 930 993
violet@violetdhu.com.au

For more info, or book
>> via Eventbrite CLICK HERE